THE FOLLOWING REPORT WAS PREVIOUSLY DISTRIBUTED AS "CIA PRELIMINARY"

25X1A

1. Nai Khuang Abhaiwong and Nai Seni Pramoj, Democratic Party leaders, have stated that they do not expect to upset the present government, but they are capitalizing on the prestige which the broadcast of the Parliamentary debate gives the Democratic Party. There is a movement under way to give Phibul a single vote of nonconfidence.
2. There is mounting popular and Parliamentary opposition to the Phibul Government.
3. The Navy shows increased confidence and aggressiveness, but there will probably be no showdown yet*.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. For details of the fourteen points presented by the Thai Navy to the Army in the negotiations following the 26 February attempted coup d'etat, [REDACTED]
